Laas Geel

One of Africa's most important archaeological treasures. The cave paintings of Laas Geel, dating back over 5,000 years, showcase early human creativity and remain among the world's best-preserved prehistoric artworks.

Berbera

A historic Red Sea port city known for Ottoman and Soviet architecture, lively markets, and the golden sands of Batalale Beach. Berbera is both a gateway to maritime history and a place for seaside relaxation.

Sheikh

Nestled in the highlands, Sheikh offers cool weather, colonial-era buildings, and panoramic mountain views. Its winding roads and green valleys provide a refreshing contrast to Somaliland's coastal heat.
